

Moll

WESTERN SYDNEY
UNIVERSITY

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

~~The following information has been provided to you by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. Please read this information carefully before you decide whether to participate in the research project.~~

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- ~~The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and~~ any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview

☒ Having my information audio recorded

☒ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name:

MARK GREWAR

Date: 31-8-2022

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Human Research Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

Consent Form – General (Specific)*Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☒ Having my information audio recorded
- ☒ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

D. Mueck

Name:

DARIN BRYDE

Date:

31/08/2020

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☐ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☐ Having my information audio recorded
- ☐ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name:

D. Reynolds

Date:

3/9/22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

M005

Consent Form – General (Specific) – Men

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Family Violence

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s and/or my GP and therapist/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☐ Participating in a screening questionnaire and an one-on-one interview
- ☐ Having my information audio recorded
- ☐ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name: NICHOLAS SMITH

Date: 17/8/22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au. Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

5004

Consent Form – General (Specific) – Service Provider*Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Family Violence

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s and/or my GP and therapist/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

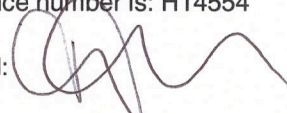

I consent to:☐ Participating in a screening questionnaire and an one-on-one interview☐ Having my information audio recorded☐ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name

Robert Anderson

Date:

22-08-22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au. Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

002

Consent Form – General (Specific)
Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☒ Having my information audio recorded
- ☒ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name: Joshua Reeve

Date: 16/08/22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☒ Having my information audio recorded
- ☐ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name:

Ben Huguss

Date:

22/08/22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☐ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☐ Having my information audio recorded
- ☐ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed: Verbal approval received Name:

Date: 28/10/22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☐ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☐ Having my information audio recorded
- ☐ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed: *Signed in
email.*

Name: Cameron Samson

Date: 30/10/22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

emailed to me.

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☐ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☐ Having my information audio recorded
- ☐ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Verbal Consent + Email
Name:

Date:

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

M038

WESTERN SYDNEY
UNIVERSITY

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☒ Having my information audio recorded
- ☒ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name: Stephen

Date: 23/10/22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

M037

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview

☒ Having my information audio recorded

☒ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name:

LOUIS PROUD

Date:

21/10/2022

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☒ Having my information audio recorded
- ☒ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name:

B. W. Fady

Date:

24/01/22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☒ Having my information audio recorded
- ☒ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name:

David Wylt

Date:

17/10/22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

M034

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☒ Having my information audio recorded
- ☒ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name:

PAUL CLEMENTS

Date:

24/10/22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

M032

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☐ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☐ Having my information audio recorded
- ☐ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name:

Date:

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

Mo 30

Consent Form – General (Specific)

Male Victims of Domestic Violence

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Domestic Violence

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☐ Participating in a screening questionnaire and a one-on-one interview
- ☐ Having my information audio recorded
- ☐ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, but no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non -identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name:

Date:

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au.

Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

5024

Consent Form – General (Specific) – Service Provider

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Family Violence

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s and/or my GP and therapist/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and an one-on-one interview

☒ Having my information audio recorded

☒ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed: _____

Name

John Treke

Date: 23.11.22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au. Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

5028

Consent Form – General (Specific) – Service Provider

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Family Violence

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s and/or my GP and therapist/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and an one-on-one interview
- ☒ Having my information audio recorded
- ☒ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

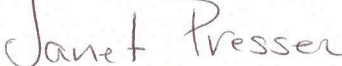

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name

Date: 26/9/2022

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au. Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

5026

WESTERN SYDNEY
UNIVERSITYConsent Form – General (Specific) – Service Provider*Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Family Violence

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s and/or my GP and therapist/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

- ☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and an one-on-one interview
- ☒ Having my information audio recorded
- ☒ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name

DAVID WILKES

Date:

19/9/22

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au. Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.

S025

Consent Form – General (Specific) – Service Provider

Project Title: Tasmanian Men and Service Providers Experience of Family Violence

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

I hereby consent to participate in the above named research project.

I acknowledge that:

- I have read the participant information sheet (or where appropriate, have had it read to me) and have been given the opportunity to discuss the information and my involvement in the project with the researcher/s and/or my GP and therapist/s
- The procedures required for the project and the time involved have been explained to me, and any questions I have about the project have been answered to my satisfaction.

I consent to:

☒ Participating in a screening questionnaire and an one-on-one interview

☒ Having my information audio recorded

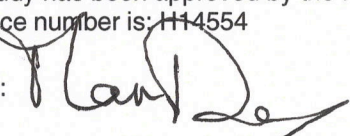

☒ To review the interview transcript for accuracy

I consent for my data and information provided to be used in this project.

I understand that my involvement has limits to confidentiality and that the information gained may be required to be reported as part of the researchers obligations under mandated notification requirements for psychologists where participants report that abuse may have been committed against a child or children. Where this does not apply, information collected during the study may be published, no information about me will be used in any way that reveals my identity.

I understand that my participation in this study will have no effect on my relationship with the researcher/s, and any organisations involved, now or in the future. I understand that I will be unable to withdraw my data and information from this project after all my data has been collected. This is due to information provided being non identified.

This study has been approved by the Human Research Ethics Committee at Western Sydney University. The ethics reference number is: H14554

Signed:

Name

MARK DAVIS

Date:

16/2

What if I have a complaint?

If you have any complaints or reservations about the ethical conduct of this research, you may contact the Ethics Committee through Research Engagement, Development and Innovation (REDI) on Tel +61 2 4736 0229 or email humanethics@westernsydney.edu.au. Any issues you raise will be treated in confidence and investigated fully, and you will be informed of the outcome.